Matters Arising

1. The constitution was signed by Marie and Emma

Finance Report

Wendy gave us an update of current finances, reported that she had closed the savings account and opened an account for the CAMEO group they have £231.00 after Christmas expenses for the Village Lunch.

Parish Council have awarded Village Hall £500, the donations table has raised £2500 in its 3 year life.

Solent Singers gave a donation from their Christmas Concert.

Hirings

New Hirer has booked Thursdays from January 'Keep Active Breath Easy' from 12 - 1.30.

The 50th Birthday party of Mr and Mrs Edney was discussed - poor clean up, complaints of noise, damage to stage floor etc

Agreed that evening birthday parties will no longer be accepted (discretion still applies).

The website will need changing as soon as we can do it.

Hirers to get a new copy and reminder of the EXIT checklist before the new term.

Solent Singers to be reminded that the hirer is responsible.

Building

Coastline have repaired front doors and fitted a lock to the lane side door for emergency ingress, keys with Liz and Emma and CS.

Meeting agreed to purchase of new ladder, heating in WC's and stores, and path to shed.

Liz asked to keep 2 weeks in August free for refurbishing of floor etc. and summer clean.

AOB.

AJ told us we will not be given a Wheelie Bin as we are Parish Council responsibility, meeting agreed we do not need one.

CS informed meeting of the Digital Changeover event - grant received from Age Concern for tea and Cakes on 12th January from 12 - 4 pm cakes wanted please and help for talking to individuals - there will be a DVD and leaflets.
